VOLUNTEERS CAN

EARN SERVICE HOURS

The Miami Herald Web Search powered by YAHOO!

Community service hours are available for students who can keep score or referee games in a Broward middle school roller hockey league beginning this month at Weston Regional Park.

Volunteers earn one hour per game plus one hour for travel time. Referee trainees are required to take an online training course and test for certification. They also must attend a referee meeting. For details, visit usahockey.com.

Scorekeepers must attend a training class before the first game so they can run the clocks and keep score sheets.
